Where else can glorious history become a part of present-day celebrations...Global celebrities, multinational corporations and Indian business houses have conducted their corporate events and personal celebrations at our heritage-venues. Heads of State, film stars, celebrities from the world of glamour and sports have graced these occasions that have made headlines throughout the world.

From glamorous mega-events and glittering wedding banquets to dignified conferences, our 'regal experiences' have been seamlessly organized to suit guests' preferences for cuisine, décor and ambience. Our endeavor to enrich these 'regal experiences' with authentic cuisine, ethnic music and dance, traditional lighting and line-up of vintage cars and horsemen is highly appreciated. It makes the events even more memorable and unique with this unmistakable touch of royal Rajasthan.

Film production houses – from Bollywood to Hollywood – have captured on celluloid the timeless romance of Udaipur and Rajasthan. We work, as a team, with film crews to ensure that shooting schedules are completed on time.

Moreover given the fast-changing and fast-growing hospitality industry, we are geared to match your budgetary requirements with our offer of matchless venues. For global and Indian event management companies, wedding planners and organizers, we have always been attentive to their needs and requirements; collectively, we've worked to ensure that their Regal Experience with HRH Group becomes benchmarked for its spirit of celebration and the roll-out of professional services.

Grand Heritage, Gajner (Bikaner)

Gajner Palace, Gajner

A lakeside palace-complex adjoining a sanctuary, in the middle of Thar Desert

Gajner Palace is a jewel in the Thar Desert; built by H.H. Maharaja Sir Ganga Singh of Bikaner on the edge of a lake. The property was converted into a heritage hotel in 1976. The hotel's compound stretches over 6000 acres. The Palace was primarily a hunting resort during the days of the British Raj and attracted several eminent dignitaries, including the Prince of Wales in 1905, The Governor General Lord Elgin, Lord Mountbatten when he was Viceroy of India, and Lord Erwin in 1927. The Imperial Sand Grouse shoots at Gajner Palace during the Christmas season was the most sought after invitation in the Indian social calendar.

Sir Ganga Singh was also an avid wild life conservator. He introduced different breeds of deer and birds into the State sanctuaries, wildlife preserves were replanted, and wardens were posted to see that no poaching took place in the jungle. There was a ban on hunting of animals during the breeding season and the killing of female animals and their young was strictly prohibited.

Maharaja Karni Singh, grandson of Sir Ganga Singh converted the hunting preserve of Gajner in to a wildlife sanctuary, home to endangered antelopes like the chinkara, black buck, blue bull as well as other unusual animals. The sanctuary and lake attract more than a hundred species of migratory birds during the winter months. Today you can shoot to your heart's content with a camera and catch demoiselle cranes along the banks of Gajner Lake.

Gajner Palace is a Grand Heritage Palace of the HRH Group of Hotels. It's sought after for corporate events, conferences and regal weddings for large and small groups.
